Ambleside Athletic Club - Privacy Notice

Looking after the personal information that the club holds about its members.

Ambleside AC are committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For any personal data you provide for the purposes of your membership, the club is the Data Controller and is responsible for storing and otherwise processing that data in a fair, lawful, secure and transparent way.

What personal data we hold on you

You give us your personal information when you register with the Club, enter our events and join our social media sites. The information you give us includes your name, date of birth, gender, address, e-mail address, phone number, name of other clubs with which you are registered. You may also give relevant health information and an emergency contact name/phone number.

Why we need your personal data

The reason we need your personal information is to be able to administer your membership, and provide the membership services you are signing up to when you register with the club. Our lawful basis for processing your personal is that we have a contractual obligation to you as a member to provide the services for which you are registering.

Reasons we need to hold your data include:

For training and competition entry

- To organise training sessions
- To help club team managers to enter events and away trips

For membership and club management

- To maintain an accurate list of club membership and subscriptions
- To organise social events;
- To send out club newsletters

We process this data on the lawful basis of consent. Therefore, we will also need your explicit consent to process this data, which we ask for at the point of collecting it.

The club operates groups on Facebook, WhatsApp and Twitter. All members are free to join these pages. If you join one of these Social Media pages, please note that providers of the social media platforms have their own privacy policies and that the club do not accept any responsibility or liability for these policies. Please check these policies before you submit any personal data on the club social media pages.

Who we share your personal data with

For most members the club does not share your personal information with any external person or organisation.

For the small number of club members who choose to register with England Athletics Limited the club does pass personal information to EA.

The Club does not supply any personal data it holds for this purpose to any other third party.

How long we hold your personal data

We will hold your personal data on file for as long as you are a member with us. Any personal data we hold on you will be securely destroyed within one years of you leaving the club. Your data is not processed for any further purposes other than those detailed in this policy.

Your rights regarding your personal data

As a data subject you may have the right at any time to request access to, rectification or erasure of your personal data; to restrict or object to certain kinds of processing of your personal data, including direct marketing; to the portability of your personal data and to complain to the UK's data protection supervisory authority, the Information Commissioner's Office about the processing of your personal data. As a data subject you are not obliged to share your personal data with the Club. If you choose not to share your personal data with us we may not be able to register or administer your membership.
